Dear Hugh:

With the flurry of activity still strong at the end of the convention, I didn't have the time to hunt you down and express my sincere thanks for your participation in our seminar "How to make the most of your announcer".

Although the attendance at the second session could have been greater in number, the general feedback that I have recieved for both sessions indicate that all of the attendees were extremely pleased with the content.

I thank you for your presentation, it helped to promote our professional image within the industry, and will help in making the job of all announcers a little easier in the future.

I hope the convention went well for you, I look forward to seeing you out on the road in 1991.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, which appears to read "Gordon", is written over the typed name.
